

THE BEST SUMMER YET...

BEEN TROUBLED BY RECENT EVENTS AND NOT SURE WHAT YOU CAN DO?

Join a group of DCC students for a week in El Paso, Texas for the Border Awareness Experience offered by the Missionary Society of St. Columban, and put your faith into action!

Our group will be educated on immigration through presentations from various groups, including legal advocacy groups, Department of Homeland Security personnel, and undocumented migrants and refugees. We will cook and serve meals for migrant families, as well as listen to stories and testimonies of the experiences of refugees.

Service will include daily or periodic trips across the border into Juarez, Mexico to interact with refugees. Passports are necessary, but Spanish language skills are not! Apply for the May 7-15th trip ASAP to claim your spot!
