Father John McDonagh Extends Outreach

New Focus on Graduate & Professional Students, Faculty

Father John McDonagh came to Duke a year ago with the blessing of the Bishop of Springfield, MA. At our request, Bishop Michael Burbidge of Raleigh asked Father McDonagh's bishop to loan him to provide priestly ministry here to enable the Duke Catholic Center to begin an outreach to Catholic graduate and professional students and faculty. We had long recognized the importance of ministering to this population (half the student body), but having only one priest/campus minister caused us to focus on undergraduate ministry.

Father McDonagh came with 11 years of experience in campus ministry at the University of Massachusetts and other colleges in his home diocese. It is unusual for a bishop to release a priest for ministry outside his diocese, but Father McDonagh and his Bishop recognized that Duke alums will serve the Church's mission across the globe, while the Diocese of Raleigh has limited personnel.

Father McDonagh's generosity and dedication are making a difference in Catholic life at Duke. He has established already important relationships, particularly in the Law, Business, and Nursing Schools. He did not come with a program or agenda, but patiently listens to needs and will work with students to develop appropriate responses. Father McDonagh recognizes that each of the graduate and professional programs at Duke are unique, requiring a tailored response. He understands that graduate and professional students are at a different place in their human development from undergrads, and that married students and international students have particular needs.

Father McDonagh's presence also has enabled us to provide weekday Masses on campus.

Adding Father John McDonagh and Catherine Preston as campus ministers with Father Joe Vetter has greatly strengthened our ability to provide a Catholic presence at Duke.

Thank you for helping us grow

We are pleased to acknowledge in this newsletter the many generous parents, alumni, friends and faculty who have financially supported Catholic life at Duke in the fiscal year that ended June 30, 2009.

Last year was a tough one for us financially, as it was for everyone. It was a great year for us spiritually and pastorally.

We were blessed to have three full-time professional campus ministers instead of one. We initiated outreach to graduate and professional students—half of our population who we had not been able to serve in a significant way until now. We began daily Masses on campus, which had not been our practice for the past 10 years.

We continue to be blessed with many young people seeking a Catholic faith community, trying to understand and live Catholic teaching, hungry for God and making serious efforts to develop a relationship with Jesus Christ.

It is so encouraging to witness the enthusiasm and dedication of students at Awakening Retreats, Tuesday Night Dinners and other activities made possible by your support. I am inspired by students who participate so actively in our Sunday liturgies, lead mission trips, challenge and affirm one another to be their best self.

I am humbled to celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation, to lead a vocation discernment group, and have many significant conversations with young people who struggle to live the truth, to do what is right, to prepare themselves for lives of service and faithfulness. Their goodness is so evident.

We are blessed to have a Bishop who understands the importance of nurturing the faith of university students, to have a staff of committed professionals to guide and sustain our ministry, and a growing number of people who are willing to invest significant funds to keep us strong—in good times and in difficult times.

As they say on airplanes, we know you have choices... many commitments and more requests for support than your resources can satisfy. Thank you for caring enough to read this newsletter, for your prayers and financial contributions.

We welcome your questions and suggestions. Please visit us when you come to Duke, and do not hesitate to call me or anyone on our staff if we can help you in any way.

May God bless our generous benefactors. May the Holy Spirit guide our efforts to nurture Catholic leaders for Church and society.

With Gratitude

Annual Financial Report Increased Donor Support Funded Strong Catholic Community

Parents, Alumni, Faculty & Staff generously provided $360,000 to fund Catholic life at Duke in the fiscal year that ended June 30, 2009—a $60,000 increase over the previous year and the largest total in our history. We are very grateful for such support in a difficult economic time, a sign that people understand and value our ministry. Still, expenses exceeded income by $35,000. Shortfall was covered by our reserves, which fell to $15,000 at year end.

We are hopeful that we can sustain our current level of ministry in the current year. We have reduced expenses by eliminating our Peer Ministry Coordinator position and providing no salary increases to our five permanent staff. Our Director of Development is making every effort to reach more potential donors and to enlist the financial support required to provide an appropriate Catholic community at Duke. We are confident about our future, but feeling the stresses that families, businesses and other organizations are experiencing.

Catholic students value and rely on the Church's ministry at Duke. Your participation is vital. Our staff pledges to operate with efficiency and transparency. We are proud of all that we accomplish in God's name and in yours.
